In the opinion of Orrick Herrington & Sutcliffe LLP, Bond Counsel to the State, delivered on March 25, 2015, interest on the Tax-Exempt Notes, when issued from time to time in accordance with the Resolutions, the Issuing and Paying Agent Agreement and the Tax Certificate, will be excluded from gross income for federal income tax purposes under Section 103 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986. The amount treated as interest on the Tax-Exempt Notes and excluded from gross income will depend upon the taxpayer's election under Internal Revenue Service Notice 94-84. Bond Counsel also opined that interest on the Tax-Exempt Notes, when issued from time to time in accordance with the Resolutions, the Issuing and Paying Agent Agreement and the Tax Certificate, will not constitute a specific preference item for purposes of the federal individual or corporate alternative minimum taxes, although Bond Counsel observed that interest on the Tax-Exempt Notes will be included in adjusted current earnings when calculating corporate alternate minimum taxable income. Bond Counsel further opined that interest on the Notes when issued from time to time in accordance with the Resolutions, the Issuing and Paying Agent Agreement, and with respect to the Tax-Exempt Notes the Tax Certificate, will be exempt from State of California personal income taxes. Bond Counsel expressed no opinion regarding other tax consequences related to the ownership or disposition of or the amount, accrual or receipt of interest on, the Notes. Bond Counsel has not taken and does not intend to take any action to update such opinion or to determine if interest on the Tax-Exempt Notes is presently excluded from gross income for federal income tax purposes. See "Tax Matters" herein.

Each Note will be dated the date of authentication and issuance thereof. The Notes are to be issued in denominations of $100,000 and integral multiples of $1,000 in excess thereof and, as initially issued, are to be book-entry-only obligations evidenced by a master note (the "Master Note") registered in the name of Cede & Co., as nominee of The Depository Trust Company ("DTC"). DTC will initially serve as the securities depository for the Notes. One fully-registered Note certificate has been issued for the Notes and was deposited with U.S. Bank National Association, as successor to Deutsche Bank Trust Company Americas, as the issuing and paying agent under the Issuing and Paying Agent Agreement. Principal of and interest payments on the Notes are to be made to DTC and DTC's current practice is to credit Direct Participant's accounts on a payment date in accordance with their respective holdings shown on DTC's records. See "APPENDIX C – BOOK-ENTRY-ONLY SYSTEM" attached hereto.

The Notes are to bear interest (computed on the basis of actual days elapsed and on the basis of a 365 or 366-day year, as appropriate) from their date of delivery, at the rate per annum determined on such date, which may not exceed 11% per annum. No Notes may mature later than ninety (90) days after their respective dates of delivery. The Notes are not subject to redemption prior to maturity.

Payments of the principal of and interest on the Notes are supported by an Amended and Restated Irrevocable Letter of Credit (the "Letter of Credit") issued by U.S. Bank National Association (the "Bank") on February 12, 2016, as further described herein, pursuant to a First Amendment to Second Amended and Restated Reimbursement Agreement dated February 12, 2016, amending the Second Amended and Restated Reimbursement Agreement, dated as of November 1, 2015 (as amended to date, the "Agreement"), each between the State, acting by and through the Treasurer of the State (the "Treasurer"), and the Bank. The maximum aggregate principal amount of Notes supported by the Letter of Credit is $225,000,000, plus accrued and unpaid interest up to 90 days at 11% per annum. The Letter of Credit will expire on August 9, 2019, unless terminated earlier pursuant to its terms or extended by the Bank.

U.S. Bank National Association

The Notes are general obligations of the State to which the full faith and credit of the State are pledged.

The Letter of Credit is not a "direct pay" letter of credit, in that payment of the principal of maturing Notes will be paid in the first instance from the proceeds of general obligation commercial paper notes and/or bonds subsequently issued by the State or other available amounts in the Note Payment Account (as defined in the Issuing and Paying Agent Agreement) with respect to the Notes and interest on maturing Notes will be paid in the first instance by the State. However, if such amounts are insufficient to pay the principal of or interest on Notes when due, then timely payment of principal of and/or interest on such Notes, as applicable, will be made from proceeds of drawings under the Letter of Credit. If for any reason the Bank fails to honor a drawing under the Letter of Credit, the State cannot provide any assurance that it will have sufficient funds on hand and available to make such payment of principal of and/or interest on the related Notes when due.

GENERAL

This offering memorandum ("Offering Memorandum") describes (i) the State of California General Obligation Tax-Exempt Commercial Paper Notes, Series A-5 (the "Tax-Exempt Notes") and (ii) the State of California General Obligation Taxable Commercial Paper Notes, Series B-5 (the "Taxable Notes," and together with the Tax-Exempt Notes, referred to herein as the "Notes"), to be issued by the State of California (the "State") pursuant to California Government Code Section 16720 et seq. (the "Legislation"), the Resolutions and the Bond Acts, each as described herein, and an Amended and Restated Commercial Paper Issuing and Paying Agent Agreement dated as of December 1, 2009, as amended (as amended from time to time in accordance with its terms, the "Issuing and Paying Agent Agreement"). The State currently has authorization for an aggregate principal amount of general obligation commercial paper notes not to exceed $2,225,000,000 outstanding at any one time. Pursuant to the Resolutions in effect on the date hereof, the State must maintain commercial paper note purchase agreements, credit enhancement or liquidity support in effect for its general obligation commercial paper notes, thereby limiting the total amount of general obligation commercial paper notes outstanding at any one time to the lesser of (x) the amount authorized by the Resolutions and (y) the amount supported by note purchase agreements, credit enhancement or liquidity support. The Notes described in this Offering Memorandum constitute a portion of the State's currently authorized general obligation commercial paper notes.

The Notes will be registered in the name of Cede & Co. as nominee of The Depository Trust Company, New York, New York ("DTC"). DTC will act as securities depository for the Notes. Beneficial interests in the Notes may be purchased in book-entry form only, in denominations of $100,000 and integral multiples of $1,000 in excess thereof. See "APPENDIX C – BOOK-ENTRY-ONLY SYSTEM" attached hereto.

Pursuant to legislation enacted in 1995, voter-approved general obligation indebtedness may be issued either as long-term bonds or, for some but not all bond issues, as commercial paper notes. Commercial paper notes may be renewed or may be refunded by the issuance of long-term bonds. It is currently the State's policy to use commercial paper notes as a source of interim funding of voter-approved projects. The State issues long-term general obligation bonds from time to time to retire its general obligation commercial paper notes. From time to time the State may issue commercial paper notes to current refund outstanding general obligation bonds as an interim timing measure, pending later issuance of long-term general obligation bonds to repay such commercial paper notes.

The Notes are issued pursuant to resolutions (the "Resolutions") adopted from time to time by finance committees under the general obligation bond statutes listed in APPENDIX A hereto (the "Bond Acts"), each authorizing the issuance of General Obligation Commercial Paper Notes of the State under the respective Bond Act. Upon Notice by the Treasurer to the Bank, additional Bond Acts may be added, whereupon they shall form a part of APPENDIX A, upon filing by the State with the Bank of a Notice as provided by the terms of the Reimbursement Agreement (defined below).

The Notes are general obligations of the State to which the full faith and credit of the State are pledged. See "SECURITY FOR THE NOTES" herein. The principal of and interest on all State general obligation bonds and notes, including the Notes, are payable from monies in the General Fund of the State Treasury (the "General Fund"), subject under State law only to the prior application of monies in the General Fund to the support of the public school system and public institutions of higher education.

Payments of the principal of and interest on the Notes are supported by an Amended and Restated Irrevocable Letter of Credit (as amended from time to time in accordance with its terms, the "Letter of Credit") issued by U.S. Bank National Association (the "Bank") on February 12, 2016, pursuant to the First Amendment to Second Amended and Restated Reimbursement Agreement dated February 12, 2016 (the "First Amendment"), between the State, acting by and through the Treasurer, and the Bank, which amends the Second Amended and Restated Reimbursement Agreement, dated as of November 1, 2015 (as amended from time to time in accordance with its terms, the "Reimbursement Agreement"), between the State, acting by and through the Treasurer, and the Bank.

The Letter of Credit is not a "direct pay" letter of credit, in that payment of the principal of maturing Notes will be paid in the first instance from the proceeds of general obligation commercial paper notes and/or bonds subsequently issued by the State or other available amounts in the Note Payment Account (as defined in the Issuing and Paying Agent Agreement) with respect to the Notes and interest on maturing Notes will be paid in the first instance by the State. However, if such amounts are insufficient to pay the principal of or interest on Notes when due, then timely payment of principal of and/or interest on such Notes, as applicable, will be made from proceeds of drawings under the Letter of Credit. If for any reason the Bank fails to honor a drawing under the Letter of Credit, the State cannot provide any assurance that it will have sufficient funds on hand and available to make such payment of principal of and/or interest on the related Notes when due.

Barclays Capital Inc. (referred to in such capacity as "Barclays" or a "Dealer") will serve as a non-exclusive dealer for the offering and sale of the Notes pursuant to a Dealer Agreement, dated as of March 21, 2012 (as amended from time to time in accordance with its terms the "Barclays Dealer Agreement"), between the State, acting by and through the Treasurer, and Barclays. Citigroup Global Markets Inc. (referred to in such capacity as "Citi" or a "Dealer") will serve as a non-exclusive dealer for the offering and sale of the Notes pursuant to a Dealer Agreement, dated as of February 21, 2012 (as amended from time to time in accordance with its terms, the "Citi Dealer Agreement"), between the State, acting by and through the Treasurer, and Citi. U.S. Bancorp Investments, Inc. (referred to in such capacity as "USBII" or a "Dealer") will serve as a non-exclusive dealer for the offering and sale of the Notes pursuant to a Dealer Agreement, dated as of March 21, 2012 (as amended from time to time in accordance with its terms, the "USBII Dealer Agreement" and together with the Barclays Dealer Agreement and the Citi Dealer Agreement, the "Dealer Agreements") between the State, acting by and through the Treasurer, and USBII.

The information in this Offering Memorandum has been obtained from the State, the Dealers, the Bank and other sources believed to be reliable. The references herein to the Notes, the Resolutions, the Issuing and Paying Agent Agreement, the Letter of Credit, the Reimbursement Agreement, and the Dealer Agreements do not purport to be complete or definitive and are qualified in their entirety by reference to the complete provisions of such documents, each of which is available from each Dealer.

Each Dealer has reviewed the information in this Offering Memorandum in accordance with, and as part of, its responsibilities to investors under the federal securities laws as applied to the facts and circumstances of this transaction, but such Dealer does not guarantee the accuracy or completeness of such information.

The information and expressions of opinion in this Offering Memorandum are subject to change without notice after the date hereof and future use of this Offering Memorandum shall not create any implication that there has been no change in the matters referred to in this Offering Memorandum since the date hereof.

This Offering Memorandum is not to be construed as a contract between the State or any Dealer and the purchasers of the Notes. Prospective purchasers of the Notes are expected to conduct their own review and analysis before making an investment decision.

DESCRIPTION OF THE NOTES

DESCRIPTION OF THE NOTES

The Notes may be outstanding in an aggregate principal amount which does not exceed the amount then available to be drawn under the Letter of Credit with respect to principal of the Notes.

Each Note will be dated the date of its authentication and issuance and will bear interest from the date of its authentication and issuance, payable on its maturity date. Notes will be issued in denominations of $100,000 and in integral multiples of $1,000 in excess thereof in book-entry-only-form. See "Book-Entry-Only System" below. The Notes will bear interest from their respective dates of issuance, at the interest rate stated thereon, which shall not exceed 11% per annum, computed on the basis of a year consisting of 365/366 days and actual number of days elapsed, payable on their respective maturity dates. The Notes will be issued from time to time to mature on a Business Day not later than (i) ninety (90) days from their respective dates of issuance and (ii) five (5) days prior to the expiration date of the Letter of Credit as such date may be extended from time to time pursuant to the terms of the Letter of Credit (or any replacement therefor provided in accordance with the provisions of the Resolutions and the Issuing and Paying Agent Agreement). The Notes are not subject to redemption or acceleration prior to maturity.

LETTER OF CREDIT

The principal amount of Notes outstanding at any one time may be adjusted by the State during the term of the Letter of Credit, provided, however, the combined aggregate principal amount of the Notes outstanding from time to time shall not exceed the Principal Component of the then current Stated Amount of the Letter of Credit. Pursuant to the various Resolutions, the State has covenanted not to issue any Note, if after its issuance, the outstanding principal of all Notes as well as interest to accrue on such Notes would exceed the then current Stated Amount of the Letter of Credit.

Pursuant to the Resolutions, the State has covenanted that it will not terminate the Letter of Credit unless no Notes supported by the Letter of Credit will be outstanding on the termination date of the Letter of Credit or all of the Holders of the Notes that will be Outstanding on such termination date have been or will be notified of the possibility of such termination prior to their purchase of Notes. In addition, pursuant to the Resolutions, the State has covenanted for the benefit of all Holders of Notes to give notice to DTC, with a request for DTC to communicate such notice to Holders of Notes 15 days prior to the termination of the Letter of Credit. In each of these Resolutions the State has further covenanted that it will not modify or terminate the Letter of Credit in a manner that would adversely affect the credit rating of any outstanding Notes.

NO-ISSUANCE NOTICES

Notes may be issued from time to time prior to the Termination Date (as defined in the Letter of Credit) in accordance herewith and with the Issuing and Paying Agent Agreement so long as U.S. Bank National Association (successor to Deutsche Bank Trust Company Americas) as the issuing and paying agent (the "Issuing and Paying Agent") under the Issuing and Paying Agent Agreement is not in receipt of instructions then in effect given and not rescinded by the Bank not to issue such Notes (a "No-Issuance Notice"). The Bank may deliver a No-Issuance Notice at any time when (i) an Event of Default under the Reimbursement Agreement shall have occurred and be continuing, (ii) the representations and warranties of the State set forth in Article Three of the Reimbursement Agreement shall no longer be true and correct in any material respect or (iii) the State fails to obtain the appropriations necessary to authorize the State to pay to the Bank or any other Person the Additional Amount (as defined in the Reimbursement Agreement) and not otherwise paid in accordance with the terms of the Reimbursement Agreement within thirty (30) days after any such amount has become due and payable. In connection with the delivery of a No-Issuance Notice, the Bank may reduce the Stated Amount of the Letter of Credit to equal the principal amount of the Notes then outstanding plus interest to accrue thereon, at the assumed rate specified in the Letter of Credit, to the respective maturity dates of Notes outstanding prior to the date on which the No-Issuance Notice was issued and the Stated Amount shall reduce in the amount of each Drawing thereafter until all such Notes outstanding issued prior to the date on which the No-Issuance Notice was issued by the Bank to the Issuing and Paying Agent have matured and on such date the Letter of Credit shall terminate; provided, that the issuance of a No-Issuance Notice shall have no effect on the amount available to be drawn on the Letter of Credit with respect to Notes issued prior to the date of such No-Issuance Notice; provided, further, that if such No-Issuance Notice is rescinded by the Bank, the Stated Amount shall be reinstated in accordance with the reinstatement provisions set forth in the Letter of Credit.

A No-Issuance Notice shall be effective when received by the Issuing and Paying Agent; provided, however, that a No-Issuance Notice received by the Issuing and Paying Agent after 11:00 a.m. New York time, on any day on which Notes are being issued shall be effective on the next succeeding day.

BOOK-ENTRY-ONLY SYSTEM

The Depository Trust Company, New York, New York ("DTC") will act as securities depository for the Notes. The Notes, when issued, will be registered in the name of Cede & Co., as registered owner and nominee of DTC, and individual purchases of the Notes will be made in book-entry-only-form. So long as Cede & Co. is the registered owner of the Notes, principal of and interest on the Notes will be payable by wire transfer of same day funds by the Issuing and Paying Agent to Cede & Co., as nominee for DTC. See APPENDIX C - "BOOK-ENTRY-ONLY-SYSTEM."

SECURITY FOR THE NOTES

The Notes are general obligations of the State, payable in accordance with the Bond Acts out of the General Fund, subject under State law only to the prior application of money in the General Fund to the support of the public school system and public institutions of higher education. The Bond Acts provide that the State will collect annually in the same manner and at the same time as it collects other State revenue, an amount sufficient to pay the principal of and interest on the Notes in that year. The Bond Acts also contain a continuing appropriation from the General Fund of the sum annually necessary to pay the principal of and interest on the Notes as they become due and payable. No further appropriation by the Legislature is required to pay the principal of and interest on the Notes. Under the State Constitution, the appropriation to pay the principal of and interest on the Notes as set forth in the Bond Acts cannot be repealed until the principal of and interest on the related Notes are paid and discharged.

Each Bond Act provides that the Notes issued thereunder "shall be and constitute a valid and binding obligation of the State of California, and the full faith and credit of the State is hereby pledged for the punctual payment of the principal of, and interest on, the bonds as the principal and interest become due and payable." The pledge of the full faith and credit of the State alone does not create a lien on any particular monies in the General Fund or any other assets of the State, but is an undertaking by the State to be irrevocably obligated in good faith to use its taxing powers as may be required for the full and prompt payment of the principal of and interest on all general obligation bonds and notes, including the Notes, as they become due. The only provision of the State Constitution that creates a higher priority for any State fiscal obligation is a provision directing that from all State revenues there will first be set apart the monies to be applied by the State for the support of the public school system and public institutions of higher education. In the past when cash resources in the General Fund have been constrained, State officials have worked within their powers granted by State law to manage cash resources to ensure that payments to schools and universities and for general obligation debt service would be made. On any debt service payment date, all general obligation bonds and notes have an equal claim on monies in the General Fund on that date for payment of debt service.

It is an event of default under the Resolutions of the State to fail to pay or to fail to cause to be paid the principal of or interest on the Notes when due or to declare a moratorium on the payment of, or to repudiate any Note.

Each Resolution states that in the case that one or more events of default occurs, then, and in every such case, the registered Noteholder is entitled to proceed to protect and enforce such registered Noteholder's rights by such appropriate judicial proceeding as such registered Noteholder deems most effectual to protect and enforce any such right, whether by mandamus or other suit or proceeding at law or in equity, for the specific performance of any covenant or agreement contained in the one or more Resolutions authorizing the affected Notes, as more specifically set forth in each Resolution authorizing the Notes pursuant to the respective Bond Acts. Beneficial owners of the Notes (the "Beneficial Owners") cannot protect and enforce such rights except through the registered Noteholder. See APPENDIX C - "BOOK-ENTRY-ONLY-SYSTEM."

Since the State has never failed to make a debt service payment on any general obligation bonds or notes when due, the exact steps which would be taken, or the remedies available to Noteholders, have never been tested. There are no cross-default provisions among general obligation indebtedness, so any default with respect to any particular issue of bonds or notes would not provide any remedy to holders of other bonds or notes which are not affected. The State is not eligible to file for protection under the federal bankruptcy laws.

Payments of the principal of and interest on the Notes are supported by the Letter of Credit. The Letter of Credit is not a "direct pay" letter of credit, in that payment of the principal of maturing Notes will be paid in the first instance from the proceeds of general obligation commercial paper notes and/or bonds subsequently issued by the State or other available amounts in the Note Payment Account (as defined in the Issuing and Paying Agent Agreement) with respect to the Notes and interest on maturing Notes will be paid in the first instance by the State. However, if such amounts are insufficient to pay the principal of or interest on Notes when due, then timely payment of principal of and/or interest on such Notes, as applicable, will be made from proceeds of drawings under the Letter of Credit. If for any reason the Bank fails to honor a drawing under the Letter of Credit, the State cannot provide any assurance that it will have sufficient funds on hand and available to make such payment of principal of and/or interest on the related Notes when due.

USE OF PROCEEDS

It is currently the State's policy to use commercial paper notes as a source of interim funding of voter-approved projects. The State issues long-term general obligation bonds from time to time to retire its general obligation commercial paper notes. From time to time, the State may issue commercial paper notes to current refund outstanding general obligation bonds as an interim timing measure, pending later issuance of long-term general obligation bonds to repay such commercial paper notes.

THE LETTER OF CREDIT AND THE REIMBURSEMENT AGREEMENT

INTRODUCTION

The following summary of certain provisions of the Letter of Credit and the Reimbursement Agreement does not purport to be complete or definitive, does not constitute a complete summary of either the Letter of Credit or the Reimbursement Agreement, and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the complete provisions of the Letter of Credit and Reimbursement Agreement, each of which is available from each Dealer. Investors should obtain and review a copy of the Letter of Credit and the Reimbursement Agreement in order to understand all of the terms of each document.

All capitalized terms used but not otherwise defined in the summary of the Letter of Credit and Reimbursement Agreement set forth below shall have the meanings ascribed to such terms in the Letter of Credit or if not defined therein shall have the meanings ascribed to such terms in the Reimbursement Agreement or the Resolutions, as applicable.

THE LETTER OF CREDIT

Payments of the principal of and interest on the Notes are supported by the Letter of Credit. The maximum Stated Amount authorized to be drawn under the Letter of Credit is $231,102,740, which is equal to the sum of (i) the maximum principal amount of the Notes supported by the Letter of Credit ($225,000,000) (the "Principal Component") and (ii) interest on such maximum principal amount calculated at the rate of eleven percent (11%) per annum for a period of ninety (90) days and on the basis of a year of 365 days ($6,102,740) (the "Interest Component"), which Stated Amount may be reduced and/or reinstated as provided for in the Letter of Credit and the Reimbursement Agreement; provided, however, that in no event shall the Stated Amount of the Letter of Credit at any time exceed $231,102,740, and, provided further, the Stated Amount may not be less than the sum of the principal amount of all outstanding Notes plus interest thereon at the rate of eleven percent (11%) per annum for a period of ninety (90) days calculated on the basis of a year of 365 days. Unless extended or earlier terminated (as described below), the Letter of Credit will expire on August 9, 2019. The form of the Letter of Credit is set forth in APPENDIX E herein.

The Principal Component of the Letter of Credit may be drawn upon from time to time for the payment of the purchase price of Bank Notes (as hereinafter defined), which payment will be used to pay the principal amount of the related maturing Notes (each such drawing is referred to herein as a "Purchase Drawing"). The Interest Component of the Letter of Credit may be drawn upon from time to time for the payment of accrued and unpaid interest on maturing Notes (each such drawing is referred to herein as an "Interest Drawing"). "Bank Note" means each Note issued by the Issuing and Paying Agent on behalf of the State and purchased by the Bank with the proceeds of a Purchase Drawing.

Since the Letter of Credit is irrevocable, the obligation of the Bank to support outstanding Notes cannot be terminated regardless of the existence of any Event of Default under the Reimbursement Agreement.

The Letter of Credit is not a "direct pay" letter of credit, in that payment of the principal of maturing Notes will continue to be paid in the first instance from the proceeds of general obligation commercial paper notes and/or bonds subsequently issued by the State or other available amounts in the Note Payment Account (as defined in the Issuing and Paying Agent Agreement) with respect to the Notes and interest on maturing Notes will continue to be paid in the first instance by the State. However, the Issuing and Paying Agent is required pursuant to the Issuing and Paying Agent Agreement to draw on the Letter of Credit in accordance with its terms to pay principal of and interest on maturing Notes when due if the sources described in the preceding sentence will be insufficient to make such payment. See "THE ISSUING AND PAYING AGENT AGREEMENT" below.

The Issuing and Paying Agent may draw on the Letter of Credit on any day of the year other than (i) a Saturday, a Sunday or a State legal holiday, (ii) a day on which banks located in New York, New York or Los Angeles, California are required or authorized to close, (iii) a day on which the New York Stock Exchange is closed, and (iv) a day on which banking institutions are required or authorized to close in the city in which the principal office of the Issuing and Paying Agent is located.

Demands for payment under the Letter of Credit honored by the Bank shall not at the time of any drawing exceed the Stated Amount thereof, as the Stated Amount may have been reduced or reinstated in accordance with the terms of the Letter of Credit. Subject to the preceding sentence, each drawing honored by the Bank pursuant to the terms of the Letter of Credit shall pro tanto reduce, by the amount of such drawing, the Stated Amount and the amount available to be drawn under the Letter of Credit by the Issuing and Paying Agent pursuant to any subsequent drawing, except to the extent the Stated Amount has been reinstated. Except in the case of a drawing after the date on which the Bank issues a No-Issuance Notice following an Event of Default under the Reimbursement Agreement, the Stated Amount will be increased when and to the extent and in the amount, but only when and to the extent that (i) with respect to the Principal Component, of the Bank's receipt of payment of the principal amount of maturing Bank Notes or Rollover Notes and, with respect to the Interest Component, of the Bank's receipt of payment of the principal amount of any Loan for Interest (as defined in the Reimbursement Agreement) and (ii) the Issuing and Paying Agent has not received a No-Issuance Notice from the Bank; provided, however, that if such notice has been rescinded by the Bank, the Stated Amount will be reinstated on the effective date of such rescission to the extent of payments received by the Bank as previously described.

The Letter of Credit will expire at 5:00 p.m. New York time on the date (the "Termination Date") which is the earliest to occur of: (i) August 9, 2019 (as such date may be extended pursuant to the terms of the Letter of Credit and the Reimbursement Agreement, the "Stated Expiration Date"), (ii) the later of (a) the date on which the Bank receives written notice from the Issuing and Paying Agent that a substitute letter of credit has been substituted for the Letter of Credit in accordance with the Resolutions and the Issuing and Paying Agent Agreement and (b) the effective date of any such substitute letter of credit (after the Bank honors any properly presented and strictly conforming drawing on such date), (iii) the date on which the Bank receives written notice from the Issuing and Paying Agent that there are no longer any Notes outstanding within the meaning of the Resolutions and the Issuing and Paying Agent Agreement and that the Issuing and Paying Agent elects to terminate the Letter of Credit and (iv) the date on which the final drawing under the Letter of Credit is honored by the Bank to fund (A) the payment of the purchase price of Bank Notes, which payment will be used to pay the principal amount of all maturing Notes issued prior to the date on which the Bank issued the No-Issuance Notice, and/or (B) the payment of the accrued and unpaid interest on maturing Notes issued prior to the date on which the Bank issued the No-Issuance Notice, in each case, resulting from the delivery of a No-Issuance Notice that has not been rescinded.

The Stated Amount of the Letter of Credit will be reduced upon the State giving the Bank notice that the Stated Amount of the Letter of Credit is to be reduced (any such date referred to herein as a "Decrease Date"). As of the applicable Decrease Date and upon such reduction, the Stated Amount may not be less than the sum of the principal amount of all outstanding Notes plus interest thereon at the rate of eleven percent (11%) per annum for a period of ninety (90) days calculated on the basis of a year of 365 days.

THE REIMBURSEMENT AGREEMENT

The Reimbursement Agreement contains representations, warranties and covenants of the State, and sets forth various events which will constitute Events of Default thereunder. See "APPENDIX D–DESCRIPTION OF THE REIMBURSEMENT AGREEMENT" attached hereto. No default by the State under the Reimbursement Agreement shall relieve the Bank from its obligation to honor a properly presented and conforming drawing under the Letter of Credit, pursuant to its terms. Upon the occurrence of certain events which constitute an Event of Default under the Reimbursement Agreement, the Bank has the right to direct the State to cease issuance of new Notes, but the Bank remains obligated under the Letter of Credit to provide funds to repay outstanding, maturing Notes. The Bank may also seek other remedies, including the right to pursue any action available at law or in equity. See "DESCRIPTION OF THE NOTES–No Issuance Notices" above.

Under the Reimbursement Agreement, the State is required to repay, with interest, the Bank Notes and Rollover Notes purchased by the Bank and any Loan for Interest extended by the Bank under provisions set forth in the Reimbursement Agreement. Interest, fees, charges, and costs are also payable by the State to the Bank under the Reimbursement Agreement.

THE ISSUING AND PAYING AGENT AGREEMENT

The following is a summary of certain provisions of the Issuing and Paying Agent Agreement that describe when the Issuing and Paying Agent is to draw on the Letter of Credit and in what amount to support payments of the principal of and accrued and unpaid interest on the Notes when due. The following summary does not purport to be complete or definitive, does not constitute a complete summary of the Issuing and Paying Agent Agreement, and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the complete provisions of the Issuing and Paying Agent Agreement, which is available from each Dealer. Investors should obtain and review a copy of the Issuing and Paying Agent Agreement in order to understand all of the terms of such document.

If at 12:00 p.m. New York City time on any date on which any Notes mature the amounts on deposit in the account for the applicable series of Notes within the State's Note Payment Account with the Issuing and Paying Agent, together with (A) the amount the Issuing and Paying Agent has been informed by the State that has been wired to the Issuing and Paying Agent through the Federal Reserve Wire Network System by no later than 12:00 noon New York City time on such date and (B) the aggregate amount the dealer(s) of the State's general obligation commercial paper notes have notified the Issuing and Paying Agent is on hand to purchase general obligation commercial paper notes to be issued by the State on such date, which amount will be deposited in the account for such series of Notes within the State's Note Payment Account, are not sufficient to pay in full the principal of and interest on such maturing Notes of a series (other than Notes held in the name of or for the benefit of the Bank, the State or any agency or department of the State), the Issuing and Paying Agent shall, by 12:30 p.m. New York City time, draw on the Bank pursuant to the Letter of Credit in an amount sufficient to pay the principal of and accrued and unpaid interest on such maturing series of Notes in full on such date.

THE ISSUING AND PAYING AGENT

As of August 23, 2013, U.S. Bank National Association ("U.S. Bank") succeeded Deutsche Bank Trust Company Americas ("Deutsche Bank Americas") as the Issuing and Paying Agent under the Issuing and Paying Agent Agreement. U.S. Bank is currently the Issuing and Paying Agent referred to in the Letter of Credit. U.S. Bank previously purchased all or substantially all of the United States municipal bond trust business of Deutsche Bank National Trust Company and Deutsche Bank Americas (consisting of direct obligations issued by state and local governments or public instrumentalities thereof, but excluding municipal leases, municipal derivatives and certain qualified private activity bonds) pursuant to a Purchase Agreement dated as of March 14, 2013 (the "Purchase Agreement"), by and among Deutsche Bank National Trust Company, Deutsche Bank Americas, Deutsche Bank AG and U.S. Bank. Pursuant to the Purchase Agreement, Deutsche Bank Americas agreed to assign to U.S. Bank, and U.S. Bank agreed to assume, all property, rights, powers, duties, trusts, immunities and obligations of Deutsche Bank Americas as Issuing and Paying Agent under the Issuing and Paying Agent Agreement.

FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The Audited Basic Financial Statements of the State (the "Financial Statements") for the Fiscal Year ended June 30, 2014, are incorporated by reference into this Offering Memorandum. The Financial Statements have been examined by the State Auditor to the extent indicated in her report. Such Financial Statements have been filed with the Municipal Securities Rulemaking Board (the "MSRB") through its Electronic Municipal Market Access ("EMMA") system for municipal securities disclosure, as part of the final Official Statement of the San Francisco State Building Authority and Oakland State Building Authority, dated November 17, 2015, relating to the San Francisco State Building Authority Lease Revenue Refunding Bonds (State of California San Francisco Civic Center Complex) 2015 Series A and Oakland State Building Authority Lease Revenue Refunding Bonds (Elihu M. Harris State Office Building) 2015 Series A. Information provided by the State and any annual financial and operating information and notices of certain material events regarding the State, and any other information on the MSRB's website is not incorporated by reference into this Offering Memorandum. The State makes no representation as to the accuracy or completeness of any such information.

Additional financial information may also be obtained from the California State Treasurer's Office website at www.treasurer.ca.gov and the California State Controller's Office website at www.sco.ca.gov. In addition, the State currently attaches its most recent Financial Statements as an exhibit to its general obligation bond offering documents, each of which are expected to be filed on EMMA. No such information is part of or incorporated into this Offering Memorandum.

RATINGS

In connection with the Letter of Credit, the Notes have received the ratings of "P-1" by Moody's Investors Service, Inc. ("Moody's"), "A-1+" by Standard & Poor's Rating Services

("S&P"), and "F1+" by Fitch Ratings, Inc. ("Fitch"). An explanation of the significance and status of such credit ratings may be obtained from the rating agencies furnishing the same. There is no assurance that such ratings will continue for any given period of time or that they will not be revised or withdrawn entirely by any such rating agencies if, in their respective judgments, circumstances so warrant. Any revision or withdrawal of a credit rating could have an effect on the market prices and marketability of the Notes.

TAX MATTERS

In the opinion of Orrick Herrington & Sutcliffe LLP, Bond Counsel to the State, delivered on March 25, 2015, interest on the Tax-Exempt Notes, when issued from time to time in accordance with the Resolutions, the Issuing and Paying Agent Agreement and the Tax Certificate, will be excluded from gross income for federal income tax purposes under Section 103 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986. The amount treated as interest on the Tax-Exempt Notes and excluded from gross income will depend upon the taxpayer's election under Internal Revenue Service Notice 94-84. Bond Counsel also opined that interest on the Tax-Exempt Notes when issued from time to time in accordance with the Resolutions, the Issuing and Paying Agent Agreement and the Tax Certificate, will not constitute a specific preference item for purposes of the federal individual or corporate alternative minimum taxes, although Bond Counsel observed that interest on the Tax-Exempt Notes will be included in adjusted current earnings when calculating corporate alternate minimum taxable income. Bond Counsel further opined that interest on the Notes when issued from time to time in accordance with the Resolutions, the Issuing and Paying Agent Agreement, and with respect to the Tax-Exempt Notes the Tax Certificate, will be exempt from State of California personal income taxes. Bond Counsel expressed no opinion regarding other tax consequences related to the ownership or disposition of, or the accrual or receipt of interest on, the Notes. A complete copy of the opinion delivered by Bond Counsel on March 25, 2015, is set forth in Appendix B hereto. Bond Counsel has not taken and does not intend to take any action to update such opinion or to determine if interest on the Tax-Exempt Notes is presently excluded from gross income for federal income tax purposes.

BOND COUNSEL HAS NOT RENDERED AN OPINION WITH REGARD TO FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES WITH RESPECT TO THE TAXABLE NOTES. EACH OWNER OF THE TAXABLE NOTES SHOULD SEEK ADVICE BASED ON SUCH OWNER'S PARTICULAR CIRCUMSTANCES FROM AN INDEPENDENT TAX ADVISOR.

There are or may be pending in the Congress of the United States legislative proposals, including some that carry retroactive effective dates, that, if enacted, could alter or amend the federal tax matters referred to above or affect the market value of the Notes. It cannot be predicted whether or in what form any such proposal might be enacted or whether, if enacted, it would apply to bonds or notes issued prior to enactment. Prospective purchasers of the Notes should consult their own tax advisors regarding any pending or proposed federal tax legislation. Bond Counsel expressed no opinion regarding any pending or proposed federal tax legislation.

Such investment securities activities may involve securities and instruments of the State.

APPENDIX B

OPINION OF BOND COUNSEL

March 25, 2015

Honorable John Chiang
Treasurer of the State of California
915 Capitol Mall, Room 110
Sacramento, California 95814

State of California General Obligation
Commercial Paper Notes, Series A and Series B
(Final Opinion)

Dear Mr. Treasurer:

We have served as note counsel to the State of California (the "State") in connection with the authorization of issuance by the State of its General Obligation Tax-Exempt Commercial Paper Notes, Series A, (the "Tax-Exempt Notes") and its General Obligation Taxable Commercial Paper Notes, Series B (such notes together with the Tax-Exempt Notes, the "Notes"), to be issued in an aggregate principal amount not exceeding the lesser of the principal amount authorized by the Resolutions (defined below) and the principal amount of Notes supported by Credit Agreements (as defined in the Resolutions). The Notes are authorized pursuant to the respective bond acts identified in Schedule A hereto (collectively, the "Laws") and are issued pursuant to Section 16731.6 of the Government Code of the State and resolutions (the "Resolutions") adopted from time to time by the respective finance committees designated under the Laws. Capitalized terms used but not defined herein shall have the meanings specified in the Resolutions.

In such connection, we have reviewed the Resolutions, the agreement between the State and U.S. Bank National Association, as successor to Deutsche Bank Trust Company Americas, acting as issuing and paying agent for the Notes, as amended to date (the "Issuing and Paying Agent Agreement"), the tax certificate of the State dated December 10, 2014 as supplemented by a Supplemental Tax Certificate dated March 25, 2015 (as supplemented, the "Tax Certificate") related to the Tax-Exempt Notes, certificates of the State and others, and such other documents and matters to the extent we deemed necessary to render the opinions set forth herein.

The opinions expressed herein are based on an analysis of existing laws, regulations, rulings and court decisions and cover certain matters not directly addressed by such authorities. Such opinions may be affected by actions taken or omitted or events occurring after the date hereof and before or after Notes are issued. We have not undertaken to determine, or to inform any person, whether any such actions are taken or omitted or events do occur or any other matters come to our attention after the date hereof. Accordingly, this letter speaks only as of its date and is not intended to, and may not, be relied upon or otherwise used in connection with any such actions, events or matters. We have no obligation to update this letter. We have assumed the genuineness of all documents and signatures presented to us (whether as originals or as copies) and the due and legal execution and delivery thereof by, and validity against, any parties other than the State. We have assumed, without undertaking to verify, the accuracy (as of the date hereof and as of each date of issuance from time to time of the Notes) of the factual matters represented, warranted or certified in the documents referred to in the second paragraph hereof. Furthermore, we have assumed compliance with the covenants and agreements contained in the Resolutions and the Tax Certificate, including (without limitation) covenants and agreements compliance with which is necessary to assure that future actions, omissions or events will not cause interest on the Tax-Exempt Notes to be included in gross income for federal income tax purposes, possibly retroactive to the date on which the Notes were first issued. We call attention to the fact that the rights and obligations under the Notes, the Resolutions, the Issuing and Paying Agent Agreement and the Tax Certificate and their enforceability may be subject to bankruptcy, insolvency, receivership, reorganization, arrangement, fraudulent conveyance, moratorium and other laws relating to or affecting creditors' rights, to the application of equitable principles, to the exercise of judicial discretion in appropriate cases, and to the limitations on legal remedies against the State. We express no opinion with respect to any indemnification, contribution, liquidated damages, penalty (including any remedy deemed to constitute a penalty), right of set-off, arbitration, choice of law, choice of forum, choice of venue, non-exclusivity of remedies, waiver or severability provisions contained in the foregoing documents. Our services did not include financial or other non-legal advice. Finally, we undertake no responsibility for the accuracy, completeness or fairness of any offering material relating to the Notes and express no opinion with respect thereto.

Based on and subject to the foregoing, and in reliance thereon, as of the date hereof, we are of the following opinions:

1. The State has full power and authority to adopt the Resolutions, and to issue the Notes.

2. The Notes, when issued from time to time in the form authorized by and otherwise in compliance with the Resolutions and the Issuing and Paying Agent Agreement and authenticated by the Issuing and Paying Agent against payment therefor, will constitute the valid and binding general obligations of the State, payable in accordance with the Resolutions from Available Funds.

3. The full faith and credit of the State of California are pledged to the punctual payment of the principal of and interest on the Notes as the principal and interest become due and payable.

4. Interest on the Tax-Exempt Notes when issued from time to time in accordance with the Resolutions, the Issuing and Paying Agent Agreement and the Tax Certificate, will be excluded from gross income for federal income tax purposes under Section 103 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986. The amount treated as interest on the Tax-Exempt Notes and excluded from gross income will depend upon the taxpayer's election under Internal Revenue Service Notice 94-84. Interest on the Tax-Exempt Notes, when issued from time to time in accordance with the Resolutions, the Issuing and Paying Agent Agreement and the Tax Certificate, will not constitute a specific preference item for purposes of the federal individual or corporate alternative minimum taxes, although we observe that interest on the Tax-Exempt Notes will be included in adjusted current earnings when calculating corporate alternate minimum taxable income.

5. Interest on the Notes when issued from time to time in accordance with the Resolutions, the Issuing and Paying Agent Agreement, and with respect to the Tax-Exempt Notes the Tax Certificate, will be exempt from State of California personal income taxes.

Except as explicitly stated in paragraphs 4 and 5 above, we express no opinion regarding other tax consequences related to the ownership or disposition of, or the amount, accrual or receipt of interest on, the Notes.

Very truly yours,

ORRICK, HERRINGTON & SUTCLIFFE LLP

APPENDIX C

BOOK-ENTRY-ONLY SYSTEM

The information in this Appendix concerning The Depository Trust Company, New York, New York ("DTC") and DTC's book-entry-only system has been obtained from sources that the Dealers believe to be reliable, but none of the Dealers, the Bank nor the State take responsibility for the accuracy thereof.

DTC will act as securities depository for the Notes. The Notes will be issued as fully-registered securities registered in the name of Cede & Co. (DTC's partnership nominee) or such other name as may be requested by an authorized representative of DTC. Unless otherwise required by Cede & Co., the initial registered owner of the Notes, the Notes of each series shall be evidenced by a single Master Note and will be deposited with DTC.

DTC, the world's largest securities depository, is a limited-purpose trust company organized under the New York Banking Law, a "banking organization" within the meaning of the New York Banking Law, a member of the Federal Reserve System, a "clearing corporation" within the meaning of the New York Uniform Commercial Code, and a "clearing agency" registered pursuant to the provisions of Section 17A of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. DTC holds and provides asset servicing for over 3.5 million issues of U.S. and non-U.S. equity issues, corporate and municipal debt issues, and money market instruments from over 100 countries that DTC's participants ("Direct Participants") deposit with DTC. DTC also facilitates the post-trade settlement among Direct Participants of sales and other securities transactions in deposited securities through electronic computerized book-entry-only transfers and pledges between Direct Participants' accounts. This eliminates the need for physical movement of securities certificates. Direct Participants include both U.S. and non-U.S. securities brokers and dealers, banks, trust companies, clearing corporations, and certain other organizations. DTC is a wholly-owned subsidiary of The Depository Trust & Clearing Corporation ("DTCC"). DTCC is the holding company for DTC, National Securities Clearing Corporation and Fixed Income Clearing Corporation, all of which are registered clearing agencies. DTCC is owned by the users of its regulated subsidiaries. Access to the DTC system is also available to others such as both U.S. and non-U.S. securities brokers and dealers, banks, trust companies, and clearing corporations that clear through or maintain a custodial relationship with a Direct Participant, either directly or indirectly ("Indirect Participants"). DTC has a Standard & Poor's rating of AA+. The DTC Rules applicable to its Participants are on file with the Securities and Exchange Commission. More information about DTC can be found at www.dtcc.com.

Purchases of Notes under the DTC system must be made by or through Direct Participants, which will receive a credit for the Notes on DTC's records. The ownership interest of each actual purchaser of each Note ("Beneficial Owner") is in turn to be recorded on the Direct and Indirect Participants' records. Beneficial Owners will not receive written confirmation from DTC of their purchase. Beneficial Owners are, however, expected to receive written confirmations providing details of the transaction, as well as periodic statements of their holdings, from the Direct or Indirect Participant through which the Beneficial Owner entered into the transaction. Transfers of ownership interests in the Notes are to be accomplished by entries made on the books of Direct and Indirect Participants acting on behalf of Beneficial Owners. Beneficial Owners will not receive certificates representing their ownership interests in Notes, except in the event that use of the book-entry-only system for the Notes is discontinued.

To facilitate subsequent transfers, all Notes deposited by Direct Participants with DTC are registered in the name of DTC's partnership nominee, Cede & Co., or such other name as may be requested by an authorized representative of DTC. The deposit of Notes with DTC and their registration in the name of Cede & Co. or such other nominee do not effect any change in beneficial ownership. DTC has no knowledge of the actual Beneficial Owners of the Notes; DTC's records reflect only the identity of the Direct Participants to whose accounts such Notes are credited, which may or may not be the Beneficial Owners. The Direct and Indirect Participants will remain responsible for keeping account of their holdings on behalf of their customers.

Conveyance of notices and other communications by DTC to Direct Participants, by Direct Participants to Indirect Participants, and by Direct Participants and Indirect Participants to Beneficial Owners will be governed by arrangements among them, subject to any statutory or regulatory requirements as may be in effect from time to time. Beneficial Owners of Notes may wish to take certain steps to augment the transmission to them of notices of significant events with respect to the Notes, such as redemptions, tenders, defaults, and proposed amendments to the Note documents. For example, Beneficial Owners of Notes may wish to ascertain that the nominee holding the Notes for their benefit has agreed to obtain and transmit notices to Beneficial Owners. In the alternative, Beneficial Owners may wish to provide their names and addresses to the Registrar and request that copies of notices be provided directly to them.

Neither DTC nor Cede & Co. (nor any other DTC nominee) will consent or vote with respect to the Notes unless authorized by a Direct Participant in accordance with DTC's MMI Procedures. Under its usual procedures, DTC mails an Omnibus Proxy to the State as soon as possible after the record date. The Omnibus Proxy assigns Cede & Co.'s consenting or voting rights to those Direct Participants to whose accounts Notes are credited on the record date (identified in a listing attached to the Omnibus Proxy).

Principal and interest payments on the Notes will be made to Cede & Co., or such other nominee as may be requested by an authorized representative of DTC. DTC's practice is to credit Direct Participants' accounts upon DTC's receipt of funds and corresponding detail information from the State or the Issuing and Paying Agent on payable date in accordance with their respective holdings shown on DTC's records. Payments by Participants to Beneficial Owners will be governed by standing instructions and customary practices, as is the case with securities held for the accounts of customers in bearer form or registered in "street name," and will be the responsibility of such Participant and not of DTC, its nominee, the Issuing and Paying Agent or the State, subject to any statutory or regulatory requirements as may be in effect from time to time. Payment of principal or interest proceeds to Cede & Co. (or such other nominee as may be requested by an authorized representative of DTC) is the responsibility of the State or the Issuing and Paying Agent, disbursement of such payments to Direct Participants will be the responsibility of DTC, and disbursement of such payments to the Beneficial Owners will be the responsibility of Direct and Indirect Participants.

DTC may discontinue providing its services as securities depository with respect to the Notes at any time by giving reasonable notice to the State or the Registrar and Issuing and Paying Agent. Under such circumstances, in the event that a successor securities depository is not obtained, Note certificates are required to be printed and delivered.

The State may decide to discontinue use of the system of book-entry-only transfers through DTC (or a successor securities depository). In that event, Note certificates will be printed and delivered to DTC.

The information in this section concerning DTC and DTC's book-entry-only system has been obtained from sources that the Dealers believe to be reliable, but none of the State, the Dealers or the Bank takes any responsibility for the accuracy thereof.

(b) By written notice to the State declare the principal of and any accrued interest in respect of all Payment Obligations including, without limitation, Bank Notes, Rollover Notes and Loans for Interest, and all other obligations owing under the Reimbursement Agreement and under the Fee Agreement to be, whereupon the same shall become, forthwith due and payable without presentment, demand, protest or other notice of any kind, all of which are hereby waived by the State; provided, however, that with respect to the acceleration of Bank Notes and Rollover Notes, Bank Notes and Rollover Notes shall be due and payable on the second (2nd) Business Day following the date on which the Bank directs such acceleration and such Bank Notes and Rollover Notes shall be tendered by the Bank against delivery by wire transfer of the principal amount thereof in accordance with the Reimbursement Agreement; or

(c) So long as such Event of Default shall not have been remedied to the sole satisfaction of the Bank, proceed to enforce all remedies available under the Documents (other than the Reimbursement Agreement) and under applicable law and in equity, including, but not limited to, the right to seek mandamus.

Attention: _____

Ladies and Gentlemen:

U.S. Bank National Association (the "Bank") hereby establishes, at the request and for the account of the State of California (the "State"), in your favor, as Issuing and Paying Agent (the "Issuing and Paying Agent") with respect to the State of California General Obligation Tax-Exempt Commercial Paper Notes, Series A-5 and State of California General Obligation Taxable Commercial Paper Notes, Series B-5 (the "Commercial Paper Notes"), issued pursuant to the Amended and Restated Commercial Paper Issuing and Paying Agent Agreement, dated as of December 1, 2009, as amended to date, between the State and the Issuing and Paying Agent (the "Issuing and Paying Agent Agreement") and certain resolutions of finance committees under general obligation bond statutes adopted from time to time (the "Resolutions"), our Amended and Restated Irrevocable Letter of Credit No. _____ (as amended, restated, modified or supplemented from time to time, the "Letter of Credit") in the maximum available amount of Two Hundred Thirty-One Million One Hundred Two Thousand Seven Hundred Forty Dollars ($231,102,740) (the "Stated Amount). The initial Stated Amount of this Letter of Credit is comprised of and equals the sum of (i) the maximum principal amount of the Supported Commercial Paper Notes (as defined in the hereinafter defined Reimbursement Agreement) ($225,000,000) (the "Principal Component") and (ii) interest on such maximum principal amount calculated at the rate of eleven percent (11%) per annum for a period of ninety (90) days and on the basis of a year of 365 days ($6,102,740) (the "Interest Component"). The Principal Component of this Letter of Credit may be drawn upon from time to time for the payment of the purchase price of Bank Notes (as hereinafter defined), which payment will be used to pay the principal amount of the related maturing Supported Commercial Paper Notes (each such drawing is referred to herein as a "Purchase Drawing"). The Interest Component of this Letter of Credit may be drawn upon from time to time for the payment of accrued and unpaid interest on maturing Supported Commercial Paper Notes (each such drawing is referred to herein as an "Interest Drawing"). This Letter of Credit is effective on the date hereof and expires on the Stated Expiration Date (as hereinafter defined) or earlier as hereinafter provided; provided, however, that if such date is not a Business Day, the Stated Expiration Date shall be the immediately preceding Business Day. The Stated Amount is subject to reductions and reinstatements as provided herein. All Drawings (as hereinafter defined) under this Letter of Credit will be paid in immediately available funds with our own funds and will not be paid directly or indirectly from funds or collateral on deposit with or for the account of, or pledged with or for the account of, us by the State. This Letter of Credit is being issued pursuant to the Second Amended and Restated Reimbursement Agreement dated as of November 1, 2015 (as it may be amended, supplemented or otherwise modified from time to time, the "Reimbursement Agreement"), between the State, acting by and through the Treasurer, and the Bank.

For purposes of this Letter of Credit, "Bank Note" means each Commercial Paper Note issued by the Issuing and Paying Agent on behalf of the State and purchased by the Bank with the proceeds of a Purchase Drawing.

We hereby irrevocably authorize you to draw on us in an aggregate amount not to exceed the Stated Amount of this Letter of Credit set forth above and in accordance with the terms and conditions and subject to the reductions and reinstatements in amount as hereinafter set forth, in one or more Drawings, payable as set forth herein, on any day of the year other than (i) a Saturday, a Sunday or a State legal holiday, (ii) a day on which banks located in New York, New York or Los Angeles, California are required or authorized to close, (iii) a day on which the New York Stock Exchange is closed, and (iv) a day on which banking institutions are required or authorized to close in the city in which the principal office of the Issuing and Paying Agent is located (a "Business Day"), by presentation of a sight draft in the form of Exhibit H hereto (each, a "Sight Draft"), accompanied by your written and completed certificate signed by you in the form of (i) Annex A-1 attached hereto (in connection with a Purchase Drawing under the Principal Component to pay the purchase price of Bank Notes the proceeds of which shall be used solely to pay the principal of maturing Supported Commercial Paper Notes issued in accordance with the Issuing and Paying Agent Agreement and the Resolutions) in an amount not exceeding the Principal Component, or (ii) Annex A-2 attached hereto (in connection with an Interest Drawing under the Interest Component for payment of accrued and unpaid interest on Supported Commercial Paper Notes issued in accordance with the Issuing and Paying Agent Agreement and the Resolutions, in an amount not exceeding the Interest Component (the presentation of any such certificate being a "Drawing"), and in any event, in an aggregate amount not exceeding the Stated Amount of this Letter of Credit.

Upon our honoring any Drawing, the Stated Amount and the amount available to be drawn hereunder by you pursuant to any subsequent Drawing shall be automatically decreased by an amount equal to the amount of such Drawing (with the Principal Component being automatically decreased by the amount set forth in the certificate presented in connection with any Purchase Drawing and the Interest Component being automatically decreased by the amount set forth in the certificate presented in connection with any Interest Drawing). In connection therewith (except in the case of a Drawing after the date on which the Bank issues a No-Issuance Notice pursuant to Section 7.3(a) of the Reimbursement Agreement which has not been rescinded by the Bank), the Stated Amount (and applicable corresponding amounts of the Principal Component and Interest Component) shall be increased when and to the extent and in the amount, but only when and to the extent that (i) with respect to the Principal Component, of our receipt of payment of the principal amount of maturing Bank Notes or Rollover Notes (as defined in the Reimbursement Agreement) and, with respect to the Interest Component, of our receipt of payment of the principal amount of any Loan for Interest (as defined in the Reimbursement Agreement) and (ii) you have not received from us a No-Issuance Notice in the form attached hereto as Annex G; provided, however, that if such notice has been rescinded by the Bank, the Stated Amount shall be reinstated on the effective date of such rescission to the extent of payments received by the Bank in accordance with this sentence.

The Stated Amount of this Letter of Credit will be reduced to the amount set forth on Annex E hereto from time to time delivered by you to the Bank to be attached hereto and made a part hereof (any such date referred to herein as a "Decrease Date"). As of the applicable Decrease Date and upon such reduction, the Stated Amount shall not be less than the sum of the principal amount of all outstanding Supported Commercial Paper Notes plus interest thereon at the rate of eleven percent (11%) per annum for a period of ninety (90) days calculated on the basis of a year of 365 days.

Each Drawing and the related Sight Draft shall be dated the date of its presentation and shall be presented at our office at _____, _____ as aforesaid, by facsimile (at facsimile number: _____), Attention: _____, without further need of documentation (including the original of this Letter of Credit), it being understood that each Drawing so submitted is to be the sole operative instrument of drawing. If we receive any Drawing, in strict conformity with the terms and conditions of this Letter of Credit, after 12:30 P.M., New York time, on a Business Day prior to the termination hereof, we will honor the same by 2:30 P.M., New York time, on the next succeeding Business Day in accordance with your payment instructions.

Payment under this Letter of Credit shall be made by the Bank by wire transfer of immediately available funds to _____. Such account may be changed only by presentation to the Bank of a letter in form satisfactory to the Bank specifying a different account with the Issuing and Paying Agent and executed by the Issuing and Paying Agent and authenticated to our satisfaction.

This Letter of Credit shall expire at 5:00 P.M., New York time, on the date (the "Termination Date") which is the earliest to occur of (i) August 9, 2019 (as extended from time to time the "Stated Expiration Date"), (ii) the later of (a) the date on which we receive written notice from you in the form of Annex C attached hereto that a substitute letter of credit has been substituted for this Letter of Credit in accordance with the Resolutions and the Issuing and Paying Agent Agreement and (b) the effective date of any such substitute letter of credit as specified in such Annex C (after we honor any properly presented and strictly conforming Drawing on such date), (iii) the date on which we receive written notice from you in the form of Annex D attached hereto that there are no longer any Supported Commercial Paper Notes outstanding within the meaning of the Resolutions and the Issuing and Paying Agent Agreement and that you elect to terminate the Letter of Credit and (iv) the date on which the final Drawing under the Letter of Credit is honored by the Bank hereunder to fund (A) the payment of the purchase price of Bank Notes, which payment will be used to pay the principal amount of all maturing Supported Commercial Paper Notes issued prior to the date on which the Bank issued the No-Issuance Notice, and/or (B) the payment of the accrued and unpaid interest on maturing Supported Commercial Paper Notes issued prior to the date on which the Bank issued the No-Issuance notice, in each case, resulting from the delivery of a No-Issuance Notice that has not been rescinded.

Prior to the Termination Date, we may extend the Stated Expiration Date from time to time at the request of the State by delivering to you a notice in the form of Annex F hereto designating the date to which the Stated Expiration Date is being extended. All references in this Letter of Credit to the Stated Expiration Date shall be deemed to be references to the date designated as such in such notice. Any date to which the Stated Expiration Date has been extended as herein provided may be extended in a like manner.

This Letter of Credit is transferable in its entirety to any transferee which you have certified to us has succeeded you as Issuing and Paying Agent under the Issuing and Paying Agent Agreement and may be successively transferred. Transfer of the available balance under this Letter of Credit to such transferee (each a "Transfer") shall be effected by presenting to us a notice in the form of Annex B attached hereto signed by the transferor and the transferee together with the original Letter of Credit and amendments, if any. Transfers to designated foreign nationals and/or specially designated nationals are not permitted as being contrary to the U.S. Treasury Department or Office of Foreign Assets Control Regulations. Upon our endorsement of such transfer, the transferee instead of the transferor shall, without necessity of further action, be entitled to all the benefits of and rights under this Letter of Credit in the transferor's place.

This Letter of Credit sets forth in full our undertaking (but not any of our rights, whether under applicable law or otherwise), and such undertaking (but not any of our rights, whether under applicable law or otherwise) shall not in any way be modified, amended, amplified or limited by reference to any document, instrument or agreement referred to herein (including, without limitation, the Commercial Paper Notes), except only the Drawings referred to herein and ISP98 (as hereinafter defined); and any such reference shall not be deemed to incorporate herein by reference any document, instrument or agreement except for such Drawings and the ISP98 (as hereinafter defined).

If a Drawing does not conform to the terms and conditions of this Letter of Credit, we will use reasonable efforts to give telephonic notice thereof to the Issuing and Paying Agent within the time set forth above for honor of such Drawing; such notice, if given, to be confirmed in writing to the Issuing and Paying Agent within one Business Day after such notice; provided, however, that the absence of such confirmation shall not affect the conclusiveness or binding effect of such notice, and we shall hold all documents at your disposal or, at your option, return the same to you.

Communications with respect to this Letter of Credit shall be addressed to us at U.S. Bank National Association at _____, _____, facsimile number: _____ (or such other place as we may from time to time specify by written notice) specifically referring to the number of this Letter of Credit.
